PRRD to veto bill extending 2019 budget validity if unlawful MANILA -- President Rodrigo Duterte will veto the bill extending the validity of this year's national budget until the end of 2020 if he thinks it violates the Constitution, Malacañang said on Thursday.

Presidential Spokesperson Salvador Panelo made this remark after the Senate and House of Representatives passed a bill which prolongs the availability of the General Appropriations Act (GAA) under the 2019 national budget from Dec. 31, 2019 to Dec. 30, 2020.
The House approved House Bill No. 5437 on Nov. 18 while the Senate adopted the lower chamber's version of the bill on Nov. 26 without amendments.
However, the bill goes against Duterte's Executive Order (EO) No. 91 which ordered the shift to cash budgeting system to speed up the utilization of the government's 2019 fiscal plan.
Under a cash-based budget system, appropriations must be used only until the end of the fiscal year.
Prior to this EO, the government has been operating on an obligations-based system which allowed funds to be spent beyond the fiscal year.

"Basta (If) it is in violation of the Constitution, he (the President) will veto it. Hindi naman nababago 'yun eh (That does not change)," Panelo said in a Palace briefing.
"If the EO was made by the President, that means the assumption there is there is regularity and therefore in accordance with the Constitution," he added.
Panelo said all measures, including the bill which extends the validity of the 2019 budget, should comply with the EO 91.
Asked if the President is not inclined to support the bill, Panelo said: "If in violation of the Constitution, we will not support it."
Senator Sonny Angara earlier said the approval of the bill is necessary as all appropriations that were not released, obligated or paid by the end of Dec. 31, 2019 will lapse and revert to the National Treasury, as provided under the implementation of the cash budgeting system.
He said the measure will enable government agencies to extend assistance in relief efforts for victims of calamities.
"In other words, without the approval of this measure, precious funds might not be spent and our people will experience even more delays in the projects and social services promised to them," he said.

Angara, chair of the Senate Committee on Finance, said extending the validity of the funds would enable government agencies to implement their projects and provide their services to the people.
"Through this measure, we would be extending a big helping hand to the Executive branch which has had to operate in the first few months of this year on a reenacted budget, and the rest (of the year) under pressure to spend up to PHP3.687 trillion of total available appropriations in a span of approximately seven to eight months amidst an election ban on government projects this year," he added.
The 2019 GAA was signed only last April 15 due to budget impasse in the versions of the House and Senate.
The Duterte government was forced to operate on a reenacted 2018 national budget for the first four months of the year. (PNA)

CA junks GMA Network plea on talents' labor case

MANILA -- The Court of Appeals (CA) has turned down a motion for reconsideration filed by broadcast firm GMA Network questioning its earlier decision in a labor case which was in favor of 97 of its talents.
In a two-page resolution dated November 25 by Associate Justice Zenaida T. Galapate-Laguilles of the CA's Former Special 14th Division, the CA denied the motion filed by GMA.
Associate Justices Mario V. Lopez and Gabriel T. Robeniol concurred in saying the firm failed to present new evidence to bolster its case.
"After a careful consideration of the motion for reconsideration filed by petitioners GMA Network Inc. and/or Atty. Felipe I. Gozon, we find the arguments set forth therein to be plain reiterations of those issues already deliberated and passed upon. We thus find no compelling reason and warrants a modification much less a reversal of the decision dated February 20, 2019. Wherefore, the instant motion of reconsideration (by GMA) is denied." the CA said.

The CA ruling upheld its earlier decision on the case which came three years after the final entry of judgment by the National Labor Relations Commission (NLRC), declaring members of the Talents Association of GMA Network (TAG) as regular employees of the broadcast network.
In its earlier decision, the appellate court dismissed the broadcast firm's petition for certiorari and ruled that "when the work done is an integral part of the regular business of the employer and when the worker, relative to the employer, does not furnish an independent business or professional service, such work is a regular employment of such employee and not an independent contractor".
