NCRPO chief, Maj. Gen. Guillermo Eleazar identified the relieved police officer as Capt. Eleno Ilustrismo, commander of the Police Community Precinct (PCP) 1 in Pasig City, where its surroundings were found full of cigarette butts, empty water bottles and candy wrappers during a second

Eleazar said this is a

"Cleanliness not only inside but (also) outside (is important). There are a lot of cigarette butts, empty water bottles and candy wrappers during my inspection in these PCPs. I told them even if they have old equipment, as long as these are in order, the people will still find it presentable, especially complainants. The comfort rooms should not have any foul smell. It is important to have a good

“Clean office. Clean mindset. Clean manner of working for the people. The people’s trust will be restored if they see clean surroundings of police stations. What I mean here is exaggerated cleanliness,” Eleazar said. (PNA)

PDEA added that Burhan was supposed to meet these

Talusan added that BOC has intensified its border monitoring, and is in close coordination with the PDEA. (PNA)
