ZAMBALES PNP forms Press Corps. (CESAR VILLA)

p.2

By: CESAR R. VILLA
CAMP CONRADO D. YAP, Zambales- IN an effort to boost it's campaign against all forms of criminality especially anti-drug operations the Zambales Police Provincial Command (ZPPC) leadership had struck a deal here last week with various Media personalities in the province and Olongapo City establishing the first-ever PNP Press Corps(PPC)

Police Provincial Director Colonel Ponce Rogelio I. Penones, the prime mover of the project disclosed "he had to work an extra mile and taking up precise steps for the project to succeed knowing fully the gravity of the task ahead."

But he said "he had done his part" and so with him came about an array of newsmen and women. who responded well and later took up their oath of office on the 19th of November this year.

Col. Penones had administered the press corps induction of officers and it's members and presided over th ceremonies .

The inducted officers of the press corps are as follows: PRESIDENT: Jeff Gallos Tumbado; VICE PRESIDENT- Cesar R. Villa; SECRETARY- Jay Czar La Torre; TREASURER-- Alex Galang; AUDITOR- Dante Salvana; BOARD OF DIRECTORS- Bebot Sison Jr.- Chairman; Members: Patrick Roxaz;Ray Mark Dungog and Jonas Reyes..ADVISER: Vic Viscocho Jr. MEMBERS: JoJo Perez; Jeff Valdez; Russell Banawa; Polly Leomo and Betty Bendicion.

In his post induction rites speech, Penones urged the Press members to remain united and ensure self discipline among themselves, pursue an honest life in their career and most of all adhere their work as messengers for press freedom.He ended his speech in a high note and in local lingo he underscored a popular saying" ang pagsasama ng tapat ay pagsasama ng maluwat.

In response, Press Corps President Jeff Tumbado had praised the noble tasked taken by the PNP command leadership led by Col. Penones on the Media sector for a valuable mission extended prompting the establishment of the first-ever Police Press Corps in the area.

"As their ally and partner for peace and development of the province," Tumbado promised a more cordial and healthy relationship between the media group and the Zambales Police Provincial Command. Tumbado also praised the cooperation of the peace authorities including the 13 Chiefs of Police and other allied ranks who worked behind the scenes to make the event successful. # (with reports from Polly Leomo)
