News Agency.

By standing by its decision, Parlade said, DepEd is able to help the government stop the exploitation and recruitment of indigenous children into the ranks of the New People's Army (NPA).

Briones, responding to Bay-an Muna party-list Rep. Eufemia Cullamat query on why the 55 schools catering to indigenous peoples (IPs) were closed and what procedures were undertaken by the agency to justify the closure, said the 55 Salugpungan Ta' Tanu Igkanogon (Salugpungan) schools were "temporarily suspended" due to their failure to comply with the requirements set down DepEd for private schools to be given a permit to operate.

"Rep. Cullamat is an IP and she should know that it's her fellow IP leaders who are demanding for the closure of their schools, for the reasons cited, among several defects enumerated by DepEd," Parlade said. "So why is Rep Cullamat insisting on this issue?"

He added that it is because of the millions of euros which they will miss from their foreign donors that not only goes to the training of these child warriors, but also to the other front organizations of the Communist Party of the Philippines (CPP) that seeks to destroy the government.

Parlade, who is also Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Chief of Staff for Civil-Military Operations, identified the Rural Missionaries of the Philippines (RMP) and Mindanao Interfaith Services Foundation Inc (MIS-FI) as the organizations running these Salugpungan schools, with officials who are spouses of NPA leaders in Mindanao.
